

Barber Shop, Books & Boys

For 1st-6th grade

Lakota school students

Announcing Barber Shop, Books & Boys - a new program that fosters a love of reading in young men and builds relationships, especially among the student, parent and community members.

Who: 1st-6th grade boys and their fathers, grandfather, uncles, or any male role model in their life

What: Will visit the barber shop on a evening once a month and have a book read by another community member. Maybe a father of one of the boys. If a boy chooses to be the reader that evening, then they will receive a "free" haircut.

Where: Rod Hampton's barber shop—X Quisite Cut Z, 7324 Kingsgate Way # F., West Chester

When: Third Tuesday of the month at 7 p.m. — November 15, December 20, January 17 and February 21.

For more information, contact:
Angie Brown, Parent Family & Community Engagement
angie.brown@lakotaonline.com or 513.557.8868